Knowledge of sectors, economic data, market analyses

We provide tailor-made information about the economic structure of Frankfurt and key sectors. Our sector project directors give you an exact picture of the market in Frankfurt and the qualities of this location.

Real estate skills

We are familiar with the Frankfurt real estate market and its players. We will support your search for offices, commercial space, land, storage space and outlets. Our real estate experts co-operate with local real estate companies and the city real estate administrative office.

Excellent connections

Facts are not always sufficient. You may have questions or wish to discuss problems or exchange ideas with other people. We initiate networks and sector meetings and obtain access for you to associations, organisations, communities, existing networks and professional advisors. And if we don't know the right contact, we will know someone who does.

Local development

We are mediators between the worlds of business and politics. We communicate your needs to political bodies. We make recommendations for economic and local policies and prepare proposals to secure the economic future of Frankfurt. We exert an economic influence on development planning for the city of Frankfurt.

Administrative skills

We help you to expedite and complete authorisation procedures.

Our business advisors are there to help small and medium-sized enterprises and craft enterprises in particular. The business advisors are specialised in solving all kinds of site-related problems.

Our project directors specialising in other countries are here to support foreign investors. They provide information about the steps and authorisations that are necessary to settle in Frankfurt and give information about the German labour and tax law. They arrange contacts with specialist lawyers and assist with approval procedures.
